Class Details

Biblical Parenting Class

■ Attendance

Because each new lesson builds off of the previous lesson, faithful attendance is crucial. If one parent in a family has to miss a class, we encourage the other parent to still attend if able. Parents benefit greatly by working on the same concepts at the same time, which fosters unity and consistency in parenting. If a class is missed by either parent, the lesson must be made up before the next class by checking out a loaned copy from us and returning it by the next class day. All homework should also be completed as normal. Although the DVD segment is the main teaching tool of each lesson, being present and participating in the homework review and class discussion time is the most critical portion of the program. These two segments allow time for class discussion of the practical applications of the material gleaned from the DVD Lessons. Because of this, missing classes will put you at a great disadvantage from getting the most out of each session. If no more than 2 sessions were missed, a "Completion Certificate" will be given at the end of the 12 session course.

■ Course Guidelines

Besides the 12 class sessions, both parents are expected to complete their readings and homework before the next lesson. Although you may do your homework together as a couple, it is very important that you both do the reading and write your answers in your own workbook. We encourage class participation during the homework review. However, if you did not do your reading and homework, we would ask that you do not participate in the homework discussion. We want you to view our class as a "safe" place to share prayer requests, parenting trials and joys, and other possible delicate matters that pertain to parenting. Confidentiality is expected from all those that are present. Although this is a parenting class, we want you to look forward to coming and view the class as a "special" time away from the kids.

■ Special Note:

If you believe you will miss more than 2 sessions due to work shifts only, please contact the class facilitators Craig and Anita Bauer, to discuss make up sessions with a mentor parenting couple.

Wednesday Night Class Format

Biblical Parenting Class

Because we value everyone's time and other commitments, we will begin class promptly at 6:05pm and end promptly at 7:55pm (in order to drop off and pick up our children in AWANA). Please feel welcome to email or call anytime. If time allows, we would also love to talk after class if needed.

1. Prayer/Prayer Requests: approximately 15 minutes (6:05-6:25)

We value prayer as the utmost important factor of successful Biblical parenting, and will be keeping a prayer journal. In the interest of time though, we would please ask that you keep the prayer requests (presented to the class) related to your children and/or your parenting. Please feel free to talk with us after class if there is anything else you would like us to pray for.*

2. Homework Review: approximately 20 minutes (6:20-6:40)

Remember to participate if you've completed your homework!*

3. Video: approximately 50-60 minutes (6:40-7:40)

Please take notes/fill in the blanks in your class notebook as you follow along with the video. If there is anything you miss or don't quite understand, we will answer those questions during discussion time. Feel free to write notes in the margins of your notebook.*

4. Group Discussion: approximately 15 minutes (7:40-7:55)

Although we encourage participation from everyone, we need to respect each other's comments. We would ask that you would prayerfully not engage in any arguments/disagreements during class time. If you have any questions or concerns about what is being taught or said, please talk with us and the people involved privately, outside of the scheduled class time. Thanks so much!*

5. Optional After-Class Fellowship Time: Priceless!

We will also have a refreshment sign-up sheet so that refreshments/snacks can be enjoyed during the class time. Coffee will be provided.
